Ms. Lisa Marsh Ryerson M '91

An experienced, innovative leader known for her advocacy of gender equity, the liberal arts and commitment to providing increased access to higher education, Lisa Marsh Ryerson has served as president of Wells College in Aurora, N.Y., since 1995. The first alumna to become president of Wells College, she is the institution's 17th president and currently the senior college president in the region.

Nationally recognized for her progressive views on higher education and community partnerships, Ryerson speaks and writes about the benefits of inclusive coeducation, gender equality in education and society, women in leadership, and business-education partnerships among many other topics.

She has elevated the college's national standing as a leader in providing an excellent liberal arts education at an affordable price. Ryerson led the board of trustees through a planning and decision-making process that included opening the college's doors to matriculated male students for the first time in the college's history beginning in Fall 2005. She directed Wells' successful transition to coeducation and subsequent 45 percent increase in enrollment.

In February 2010, Ryerson announced the addition of an innovative business center to Wells' liberal arts offerings. This program puts Wells at the forefront of national efforts to revitalize undergraduate business programs by connecting them more fully to the liberal arts.

Ryerson played a key leadership and collaborative role in economically revitalizing the village of Aurora through the restoration and refurbishment of the college's extensive holdings in the village's commercial district. Additionally, she has overseen the construction of Stratton Hall, the college's state-of-the-art science facility. Under her leadership, Wells completed the largest and most successful fundraising effort in its history – a comprehensive campaign that surpassed its ambitious $50 million goal.

An active leader in many national, state and local organizations, Ryerson serves as a commissioner and executive committee member of the Middle States Commission on Higher Education; a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division III Management Council; a director of the Metropolitan Development Association (MDA) of Syracuse and Central New York; a director of the Syracuse Symphony Orchestra; a member of the Central New York Advisory Board of HSBC Bank; a member of the board of the Northwood School in Lake Placid, N.Y.; a trustee of Auburn Memorial Hospital; and member of the Herbert F. Johnson Museum of Art Community Advisory Committee at Cornell University.

Ryerson is a past chair of the Commission on Independent Colleges and Universities of New York State, the Executive Board of the Public Leadership Education Network and the Women's College Coalition in Washington, D.C. She is a vice chair of the Council of Independent Colleges, the American Council on Education's Commission on Leadership and Institutional Effectiveness, and the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities.

She has been honored with the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) District II Chief Executive Leadership Award; a New York State Senate Woman of Distinction Award; the Girls Inc. of CNY Spirit of American Women National Role Model for Girls Award; the Central New York Chapter of The Public Relations Society of America Communications Advocate Award; a Post-Standard Achievement Award; and a Seven Lakes Girl Scout Council Woman of Distinction Award.

The Jamestown, N.Y., native earned her bachelor's degree from Wells and her master's degree of science in education in reading from SUNY Cortland. She resides in Aurora with her husband, George E. Farenthold, and three daughters, Annie, Carol and Julie.

Honorary Degree Recipient

Dr. Thomas Buchanan '74

As president of the University of Wyoming (UW) since 2005, Thomas Buchanan has set priorities for the university that have resulted in increasing excellence in academics, promoting access to higher education in Wyoming and enhancing the state's economic and workforce development.

Under Buchanan's direction, the university has experienced extraordinary success with the Wyoming State Legislature, resulting in unprecedented support for the university, including the allocation of $82 million in state matching dollars for private contributions as well as more than 100 new faculty positions. Buchanan was instrumental in helping shape legislation that established programs supporting higher education throughout Wyoming, including the Hathaway Scholarship Program and the Excellence in Higher Education Endowment.

His leadership at UW has led to record-breaking growth in private giving and research funding, with more than $500 million dollars in capital construction projects. In addition, Buchanan guided the development of the UW School of Energy Resources, successfully negotiated contracts with the National Center for Atmospheric Research (NCAR) and the National Science Foundation to establish a supercomputing facility in Wyoming, and worked with General Electric for the development of a coal gasification research facility.

Like most colleges and universities, UW has been impacted by recent economic conditions. Buchanan led the university through its most significant budget reduction in the history of the institution in order to meet budget objectives of the state of Wyoming.

Buchanan's higher education career has spanned more than 35 years as a student, teacher and administrator.

After graduating from SUNY Cortland in 1974 with a bachelor of science in recreation education, the Dobbs Ferry, N.Y., native earned a master of science degree from the University of Wyoming in 1975 and a Ph.D. from the Institute for Environmental Studies at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1979.

Upon completing his doctorate, Buchanan returned to the University of Wyoming as an assistant professor in the Department of Geography. Over the next 30 years, he advanced through the faculty ranks to department chair, full professor, associate dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and vice president for academic affairs. On July 1, 2005, he was appointed the 23rd president of the University of Wyoming.

As a faculty member, Buchanan received research dollars and state agency funding for his various projects. He worked with the Wyoming Game and Fish Department on the reintroduction of wolves to Yellowstone. He and his students studied the chemical composition of fresh snow on Mount Everest. He also worked with the state's Department of Commerce on the impact of tourism.

In 1988, he received the University of Wyoming's highest honor for classroom teaching — the John P. Ellbogen Meritorious Classroom Teaching Award. In 1990, he was the College of Arts and Sciences Siebold Professor, which provided an honorarium to enhance one's career. Buchanan used it to bring the first Geographic Information System (GIS) to the UW campus.

As president, he serves on the governing boards of the Mountain West Athletic Conference, the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education and the Western Cooperative for Educational Telecommunications. He is Wyoming's representative to State Higher Education Executive Officers (SHEEO).

Buchanan is married to Jacque, whom he met while a student at UW. They are the proud parents of Eric and grandparents of Bradley.

Academic Heraldry

ACADEMIC PROCESSION

The procession begins with the all-college gonfalonier, who leads in the faculty, followed by the schools of arts and sciences, education and professional studies gonfaloniers, who lead in the students. The procession concludes when the mace bearer brings in the platform party, which consists of members of the College's administration and faculty leadership, the College Council, visiting dignitaries and honorees.

THE MACE

The mace is a ceremonial staff used as a symbol of authority. The mace bearer precedes the platform party and places the mace on a special stand where it remains while the official proceedings of Commencement are under way. SUNY Cortland's mace, the "Torch of Learning," is made of silver and rosewood and was created by local silversmith John Marshall.

THE GONFALONS

The four bright banners carried in the academic procession are called gonfalons. The red, white, black and grey gonfalon represents the College; in blue, grey and burgundy it represents the School of Arts and Sciences; in blue, purple and black it represents the School of Education; and in peach and green it represents the School of Professional Studies.

The gonfalons were designed by Libby Kowalski, professor emerita of art and art history, and Kathy Maher, a 1984 SUNY Cortland graduate. The standards were made by Bard Prentiss, associate professor emeritus of art and art history, and J. Eric Kroot. Materials were provided by the Gilbert and Mary Cahill Foundation and the late Rozanne M. Brooks, distinguished teaching professor emerita of sociology/anthropology.

REGALIA

Commencement lends itself to the pageantry of an academic procession rooted in medieval times. The gowns and hoods worn by faculty members, candidates for graduation and platform dignitaries distinguish the institution from which the wearer was or will be graduated, the level of the degree earned and the field of learning. In 1985, American colleges established a standard code of academic dress, specifying three types of gowns. The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves, the gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve with the front part cut in an arc, and the gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped sleeves. The doctoral gown also is trimmed in velvet. The hood's inner lining, which folds out at the back and center, indicates the colors of the institution granting the degree, while the border, which comes around to the front of the neck, represents the field of learning.

The black mortarboard cap is standard. Its only distinguishing feature is a gold tassel worn by holders of the doctoral degree.

THE HONORS MEDALLION

The graduates wearing silver medallions with red ribbons have completed the SUNY Cortland Honors Program. To complete the Honors Program, a student must take 24 credit hours of honors courses, engage in 40 hours of community service, maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.2, and complete an honors thesis during his or her senior year.

THE KENTE STOLE

The Kente stole is a rich, multicolored, handwoven style of cloth that originated in Ghana, West Africa, and is revered throughout the Africana world. It is traditionally worn during important national ceremonies. The colors, patterns and ideogramatic images of the Kente stole impart information about the wearer and highlight the importance of an event or a ceremony. Similar to the academic hood, the Kente stole is relatively new to commencement ceremonies in the United States and signifies and symbolizes higher education's connection to the rich cultures, intellectual traditions and academic achievements of the Africana world.

SPECIAL PERSON DESIGNATION

All graduates can designate a special person who has been instrumental in helping them achieve their higher education goals. This individual's name is read along with the graduate's name as he or she walks across the stage at the Commencement ceremony. Students who choose to name a special person do so when they apply online for their degree.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT FLAGS

Graduating international students present their national flag to the president during the Commencement ceremony. In the past, flags representing Canada, China, Colombia, Cypress, France, Gambia, India, Japan, Nepal, Mali, Peru, South Korea and Turkey were received. During the Commencement ceremony, the flags are displayed on stage and, afterward they are exhibited in the lobby of Corey Union.

Alma Mater

*By lofty elm trees shaded round,
Tioughnioga near,
Our grand old Cortland College stands,
To all of us how dear!
We'll sing to thee, dear Alma Mater,
Of love that shall never die,
We'll strive for thy glory eternal,
Keep thy stainless honor high.
Inspiring each son and each daughter
The noblest aims to try,
All thy fame and thy spirit,
Thy might are ours
As the swift years hurry by.*
